THE PROBATION OFFICER BELIEVES THAT THE OFFENDER HAS VIOLATED THE FOLLOWING CONDITION(S)

The defendant is permitted to possess or use a computer and is allowed access to the Internet. However, the defendant is not permitted to use a computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices, including a cell phone, to access social networks (i.e., Facebook, twitter, snapchat) chatrooms, blogs, or to communicate with any individual or group for the purpose of promoting terrorism. The defendant shall consent to the installation of any hardware or software to monitor any computer, or other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant to confirm compliance with this condition. The defendant shall pay the monitoring costs as directed by the probation or pretrial services officer. Furthermore, the defendant shall consent to periodic unannounced examinations by the probation or pretrial services officer of any computers, cell phones, or other electronic communication or data storage devices that the defendant has access to, to confirm compliance with this condition. Additionally, the defendant shall consent to the seizure and removal of hardware and data storage media for further analysis by the probation or pretrial services officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of a violation of the conditions imposed in this case, or based upon reasonable suspicion of unlawful conduct by the defendant. Failure to submit to the monitoring or search of computers and other electronic communication or data storage devices used by the defendant may be grounds for revocation.

On April 4, 2019, while reviewing the defendant's monitored smart phone, United States Probation Officer Gawlinski observed several posts by the defendant on a blog which referenced a free speech ban in Europe and another that referenced an assault weapons ban law passed by the Pittsburgh City Council. In these posts, dated April 2 and April 3, 2019, respectively, he made statements of "Anyone who supports such laws must be targeted, and their families murdered. Lone Wolves GET BUSY! ROHOWA!" The other post regarding the assault weapons ban said, "HARDY'S NOTE: PA's constitution is more liberal than the US one on self-defense rights. This kike bollocks should get shot down. If not, well, disobey and kill, my Lone Wolves. Target: Jewhill!"

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
